To be eligible for admission, you must meet two admission requirements:

- Requirements for either general admission, special admission, or discretionary admission
- English language requirements

Most domestic (NZ) students enter through general admission. If you do not meet the requirements for general admission, special admission or discretionary admission may be available.

General Admission

Applicants must have:

- a recognised degree;
- OR
- a professional qualification in a relevant discipline;
- OR
- the ability to demonstrate competencies equivalent to a graduate from qualifications a or b.
 - All applicants will be required to attend an interview, or submit a portfolio or attend an audition, or a combination of these depending on the pathway the applicant wishes to follow. Applicants receive advanced notice regarding specific application requirements for their selected pathway (at least 14 working days prior to portfolio submission and/or interview and/or audition).
 - If an evidence portfolio is required, it will contain evidence of the applicant's ability within their chosen pathway or within a variety of creative media.
 - If an interview/audition is required, it shall consist of a combination of demonstrations and exercises requiring the applicant to demonstrate his or her ability to carry out specific tasks individually and as part of a group.
 - For some pathways a completed medical declaration must be submitted. An applicant may not be admitted to the Degree if they have a medical condition that will affect their ability to engage in and physical and practical aspects of a chosen pathway.

Special Admission

Applicants must have:

- a. attained the age of 20 years on or before the first day of the semester in which study for the graduate certificate is to commence;

AND

- b. provided sufficient evidence of aptitude or appropriate work or other life experience that would indicate a successful outcome in the qualification.

Discretionary Admission

- In exceptional cases an applicant who does not meet the general admission requirements and who has not reached the age of 20 on or before the first day of the semester in which study for the graduate certificate is to commence may apply for discretionary admission.
- In assessing whether to grant discretionary admission in exceptional cases, the primary focus will be on the applicant's level of preparedness for study at the required level.
