To be eligible for admission, you must meet two admission requirements:

- Requirements for either general admission or special admission
- English language requirements

Most domestic (NZ) students enter through general admission. If you do not meet the requirements for general admission, special admission may be available.

General Admission

Applicants must have one of the following, or equivalent:

- a recognised bachelor degree in the same or similar discipline, with merit achievement, deemed to be an average grade of B- or higher in all level 7 courses;

OR

- a professional qualification in a relevant discipline, recognised as being equivalent to merit achievement in a bachelor degree.

Special Admission

An applicant may be considered for special admission if s/he holds a qualification in a discipline other than communication. Relevant Academic Authority may recommend a plan of study in their first semester of study.
