

Pepehā

“Ōku tātai, ōku kāwai, ōku hikahika matua, ōku tākerekere, tōku whakapapa”

“My lineage, my heritage, my direct lines of descent, my ancestry, my genealogy ”

Ko te whakapapa ki a tāua te Māori he mea taketake nō tuawhakarere. He hononga nō tāua te tangata o te ao ora nei ki te ao wairua, hoki ki te orokohanga. Inā ōna tapu, ōna ihi, ōna wehi, ōna mana. Kia mau, pupuri, whakamana!

For Māori, whakapapa originated from ancient times. It is our connection to the spiritual realm, back to the beginning. It is sacred, great, powerful and important. Hold fast and honour it.

Ki te taha uretārewa – Paternal heritage

Ko _____ te maunga

Ko _____ te awa/moana/wai

Ko _____ te waka

Ko _____ te iwi

Ko _____ te hapū

Ko _____ te marae

Ko _____ te tangata

Ki te taha ūkaipō – Maternal heritage

Ko _____ te maunga

Ko _____ te awa/moana/wai

Ko _____ te waka

Ko _____ te iwi

Ko _____ te hapū

Ko _____ te marae

Ko _____ te tangata

Kaumātua/Pakeke

He mea whakamana tēnei tono whakapapa e au, _____ (ingoa) _____, i runga i te tika, i te pono.

Tāmoko: _____